to tell your musty Summer Suit to "dust."

Perhaps you think that hecause we are recognized as the Young Man's Shop of Richmond, all our clothes are "faddish." Oh! no. We're tremendously keen for style, of course, but we realize that tastes differ as widely as do the poles.

Lots of conservative garments here for the conservative man. Quiet fabrics, subdued patterns, soher colors, neat effects. Suits, $12 to $20.
Overcoats, $10 to $25.

This home mission work is the greatest work of the church, and the greatest problem the shurch of all denominalities has to solve. With the saterial decempency of Virainia and West Virginia, with an influx of foreign population, the emperiatedear pointed out that the thurches of all names would be taxed for pairs with this pushing work. The report was well received by the synod.

imitation tobacco can buy the kind of advertising matter he sees used for the brand of tobacco he is trying to imitate. Any one with a small amount of cash can buy steel signs, or imitate the deal or manner of packing Grape Tobacco, or can rush into newspaper space. These things require only cash; but to make Grape Tobacco takes brains as well as a little cash. Imitating our methods of advertising is easy, but there is only one Grape Tobacco. They are all after it, but so far after that they can only get what business Grape does not want, or cannot fill.

It will not only RELIEVE sufferers from LIVER, KID-NEY AND STOM-ACH TROUBLES. but wards off many OTHER ills.
